

A Pennard House Wedding: Your Perfect Day, Uniquely You

Congratulations on your engagement! As you embark on the exciting journey of planning your wedding, we invite you to discover the magic of Pennard House, a breathtaking, family-run Georgian manor nestled in the heart of the beautiful Somerset countryside.

Pennard House is more than just a venue; it's a home where history meets happiness, and where your dream wedding is brought to life with warmth, care, and an abundance of charm. Choosing Pennard House means choosing a place that offers complete flexibility, exclusivity, and a dedicated team committed to making your day effortlessly perfect.

Why Choose Pennard House?

Exclusivity and Freedom: From the moment you arrive until the last guest departs, Pennard House is exclusively yours. This means you have the freedom to design a wedding that truly reflects your personalities, without the constraints of hotel schedules or shared spaces.

A Home, Not Just a Venue: Unlike typical venues, Pennard House has been a beloved family home for generations. This unique heritage infuses every corner with a welcoming, intimate atmosphere. We invite you to treat it as your own, creating memories in our stunning drawing rooms, elegant dining spaces, and cozy bedrooms.

Breathtaking Settings for Every Moment:

- The House: Say "I do" in our beautiful indoor Civil Ceremony Room, licensed for up to 90 guests.
- The Gardens: Exchange vows under the majestic, century-old Ash Tree on the lawn, with sweeping views of the Pennard Valley—a truly romantic outdoor spot.
- The Coach House: Our beautifully restored 18th-century Coach House offers a spectacular reception space, complete with exposed beams, a state-of-the-art sound system, and a late-night bar, perfect for dining and dancing the night away.

The Pennard House Difference: Special Touches

We believe it's the little details that transform a wonderful wedding into a truly unforgettable one. Our special touches ensure every element is considered:

Accommodation & Preparation

We offer luxurious accommodation for up to 20 of your closest family and friends, ensuring the celebrations can be extended over a wonderful wedding weekend.

- The Honeymoon Suite: A stunning, private suite within the main house, complete with a beautiful four-poster bed and en-suite, reserved just for the newlyweds.
- A Relaxing Morning: We provide a dedicated, light-filled space for the wedding party to prepare, ensuring a stress-free and joyful start to the day.

Food & Drink

We are passionate about sensational food. Our in-house catering team and trusted partners focus on local, seasonal ingredients, creating bespoke menus that cater to every taste.

- Bespoke Menu Design: From elegant canapés to formal three-course dinners and relaxed evening street food, every menu is tailored to you.
- No Corkage Fee (on certain packages): We offer fantastic flexibility, allowing you to supply your own daytime drinks with no corkage charges, a significant saving.

Post-Wedding

The celebration doesn't have to end! We offer options for a relaxed post-wedding brunch in the main house or the gardens, allowing you to say farewell to your guests over a final, delicious meal.
